Onikaajigan Construction LP

Hello,

On behalf of Onikaajigan Construction LP, and our partners Saulteaux Consulting and Engineering LP- Rainy River and Naicatchewenin First Nations, we are pleased to welcome you to the campsite.

We are proud to have you stay with us and are confident that you will contribute to a positive atmosphere. We appreciate your assistance in helping to create positive environment for everyone on site.

Keep in mind that we are located close to a number of communities, including a number of First Nation communities. We ask that you respect the values of nearby communities, and appreciate your contribution in making sure that this camp provides a positive contribution to the wellbeing of these communities.

We ask you to take note of the rules and regulations for the camp, which underscore the importance and necessity of respecting the camp, and others as you are onsite. Our quality of life at the camp depends on everyone's participation and involvement.

Welcome to our camp, and have a pleasant stay.

Dean Bethune

5.0 Respect for Camp / Camp Safety

Please respect our camp, do your part and KEEP IT CLEAN. Respect other person's shifts and remember that people are sleeping during the day.

Please dress appropriately.

Please remain on camp property and do not go on to neighbour's property.

A copy of the Emergency Response Plan and the Fire Safety Plan are available on our website at www.onikaajigan.ca and will be available at the Main Office. A fire evacuation drawing is posted on each dorm room door for exit in case of fire or emergency.

The muster point is located directly across the road from the Main Office.

6.0 Camp Phones

A public phone is available in the recreation center and long distance calling cards are available for sale in the commissary. For urgent calls, please see the camp office. Mobility service is generally available at the site as well, with reception better outside; you are responsible for your own mobility/cellular service.

7.0 Dry Camp

This is a DRY CAMP! No alcohol and/or illegal drugs on camp property at any time. Violation of this rule will result immediate eviction.

8.0 Smoking

NO SMOKING IN ANY BUILDINGS. Smoking is only permitted in designated outdoor areas. There is no smoking within three metres of any entrance or within 15 metres of propane storage tanks or fuel tanks. Failure to comply may result in loss of camp privileges. Remember to use the ashtrays and cigarette disposal cans provided, located near the front and back of each dorm and main entrances to other buildings.

10.0 Wildlife

With the potential of wild life in and around camp and construction areas, you must adhere to the following:

- Do not litter – use the proper waste containers provided
- Garbage containers must be kept closed at all times
- Food should not be stored or left unattended in a vehicle
- Do no feed any wildlife

11.0 Medical / First Aid Support

1. In case of emergency, First-Aid support is available at the Main Office.
2. Out-side of basic First Aid, no other services are available at Atkinson Road Camp. You will need to bring everything you need such as Prescription and Over the Counter Medications. Some basic over the counter supplies (Tylenol, Asprin, etc) will be available at the Commissary.
3. In case of Occupational Injury, if possible, employees must go to their Supervisor who will escort them to Safety. In case of serious injury, emergency services will be called. The Fire Safety Plan and Emergency Response Plan have contact numbers for Fire, Ambulance and Policing, as well as posted below.
